love your life one bite at a time

Food-Mood Journal

How do you climb a mountain? You stand at the bottom and you look up... way, way up... and you make a DECISION.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DOING SOMETHING AND DOING NOTHING IS ONE STEP. ONE STEP IS ALL IT TAKES.

SarahTalksFood.com

You DECIDE to take that first step. Once you have done that, the hardest part is behind you. Your job now becomes making steps, one after the other, until you reach the top.

Sometimes success will seem IMPOSSIBLE. Sometimes you will make mistakes. But if you truly want to reach your goal, remember:

Failure is foregoing what you REALLY WANT for what you want RIGHT NOW.

DECIDE WHAT YOU WANT

HOW TO USE THIS JOURNAL

Congratulations on taking such an important step for your health and wellness! I believe that writing things down is the best way to stay accountable and to know what is really going on with my health, my body and my mood. Here is how I use this journal:

1. I enter the date and log the number of hours of sleep I got the night before.
2. I stroke off a water glass every time I drink 8 ounces of water.
3. I enter my menu item and then check the accompanying boxes that apply to that item, based on what I ate. I like to track the number of proteins, fruits & veggies, whole grains and healthy fats I eat in a day. For example:

DATE: Today

SLEEP LOG (Hours) 7.5

WATER INTAKE

	MENU ITEM	Protein	Fruits & Veggies	Whole Grains	Healthy Fats	MOOD CHECK

Breakfast	Smoothie	✓	✓		✓	Feel great! Energized and ready for the day.
Snack	Apple plus 12 almonds	✓	✓		✓	Satisfied. Love apples!
Lunch	Leftover stir fry w/ quinoa	✓	✓	✓	✓	So good. Peanut sauce was yummy. Feel full but not stuffed. Awake.
Snack	Hummus w/ cucumbers	✓	✓		✓	I was hungry so this took the edge off. Feeling good.
Dinner	Crock pot chicken and veggies	✓	✓			Love coming home to dinner! Ate a bit too much chicken. Feeling very full.
Other	Dark Chocolate					Late night craving!!!

4. I then answer the questions on how I feel about my choices, what I will change for tomorrow, how I moved my body and what I will do to move more tomorrow.

Good luck and I would love to know how this is working for you!! Because I want you to love your life one bite at a time,

Sarah
